

Paying for your care

How to pay for care

- There are many options for paying for your care depending on your individual needs and circumstances.
- You may be eligible for subsidised care through the Australian Government's Commonwealth Home Support Programme or Support at Home program. An assessment will determine your eligibility for subsidies, outlining your budget and the contribution you may need to make.

Resolute Care Group is an approved provider of Support at Home funded services, and can provide domestic assistance and allied health under the Commonwealth Home Support Programme.
